

Sweet Baby

SWEET WHITE WINE

Vintage: 2008

Alcohol: 5%

Residual sugar: 41 g/l

The Background:

In the middle of Langhe Piedmont, between the hills of the of the great poems of Cesare Pavese, Sweet Baby estates is located, in a world in which technology works together with rural tradition.

Although some of the grapes in this wine hail from prestigious DOCG vineyards in and around Asti, a portion of grapes come from surrounding vineyards. For this reason, our Sweet Baby offers unparalleled quality and value.

The Sweet baby Collection is increasing in size and improving its service and quality from day to day, becoming a reference point in the Piedmont wine world.

Description:

Aromatic wine of Moscato grapes produced in Piedmont. It has the light straw-yellow color; the perfume is pleasant, fresh with notes of citrus fruit and orange blossoms. The taste is sweet and the aromas standing out remind you of squeezed grapes, honey and pear. With a touch of “Sweet Baby” on its palate it is perfect for aperitif and parties, it is also ideal in accompaniment with cakes and white fruit. Serving chilled: 3°/5° C.